

Henry Lamm

March 20, 1962

Dr. Walter Harding Receives Fellowship

Dr. Walter Harding, chairman of the English Department, has received a fellowship from the American Council of Learned Societies.

Dr. Harding, who will be on sabbatical leave next year, will work on a biography of Henry David Thoreau. He has previously done several studies on Thoreau.

One of 53 fellowship winners, Dr. Harding is the only awardee from a State University of New York unit. The Fellows are associated with 34 colleges and universities and one museum in 17 states. These awards are for post-doctoral research in the humanities and related social sciences.

The American Council of Learned Societies is a private non-profit federation of 30 national scholarly associations devoted to the advancement of humanistic studies in all fields of learning. The Council's award for the tenure year 1962-63 amounts to $272,100.

archive

LD

3840

6418

1437